Judge:

Kira Dulaney has been crafty since the early 1980s and has taught fiber arts classes and hosted crafty events since 2002. She is the designer behind Kira K Designs, a line of original knitting and crochet patterns and kits. Kira has taught at Estes Park Wool Market, Interweave Yarn Fest, Lambtown Festival, the Natural Fiber Fair, Maryland Sheep and Wool Festival, Red Alder Fiber Arts Retreat, Stitches events, and TNNA, as well as numerous guilds and yarn shops. Kira enjoys the educational aspect of judging including making suggestions to improve future projects, and has judged at Black Sheep Gathering, Estes Park Wool Market, and Lambtown Festival.

Ribbons:

First through third place, all classes. (See the page on class descriptions)

Judging:

Judging will be open to the public and takes place Saturday, June 8 from 10 am to 1 pm in the Events Complex.

Judging will be based on the preparation of fiber (if applicable), consistency, size, feel, and twist appropriate to the purpose of yarn use, and correct skeining. See the link on "Proper Skeining and Labeling".

The Judge and Super Intendant have the right to shift entries to more appropriate classes, or to combine or divide classes that are under/over-represented. The Judge's decisions are final. All entries will be displayed and supervised during Wool Market hours. The Wool Market will make every effort to display and care for the entered pieces but assumes no responsibility for damage or loss.

Requirements:

- Each skein must be a continuous skein spun by the contestant since the 2023 Wool Market.
- Each project must be finished since the 2023 Wool Market and be done using your own handspun yarn. The handspun yarn can be finished any year we just ask that the project be finished since the Wool Market 2023.
- Only one entry will be accepted per class per person.
- All entries must include:
 - A completed registration/entry form. If you are entering more than one category only one entry form is required.
 - A card no larger than 3x5 for each entry. Must be tied to the skein, on one side, for display with the skein, with nothing to identify the individual exhibitor to the judge, neatly written or typed, and with the following information;
 - A. Fiber content (%) and breed(s) of fiber, if known.
 - B. Condition of fiber to start with (raw fleece, locks, commercial roving..)
 - C. How was fleece prepared for spinning (washed, flicked, carded, combed, commercially prepared...)

D. Spinning method used.

E. Intended use (knit, crochet, woven... be specific on final item that will be made with this skein)

- Check or cash- $3 per item entered. Please make checks payable to the Town of Estes Park.

Instructions for Handspun Skeins:
